Redication

To the senior class of 1947, we dedicate this second issue of "Vespa", in the faith that they, wise in council, sound in judgment, and strong in Christian faith and purpose, will take their place in the world with their contemporaries.

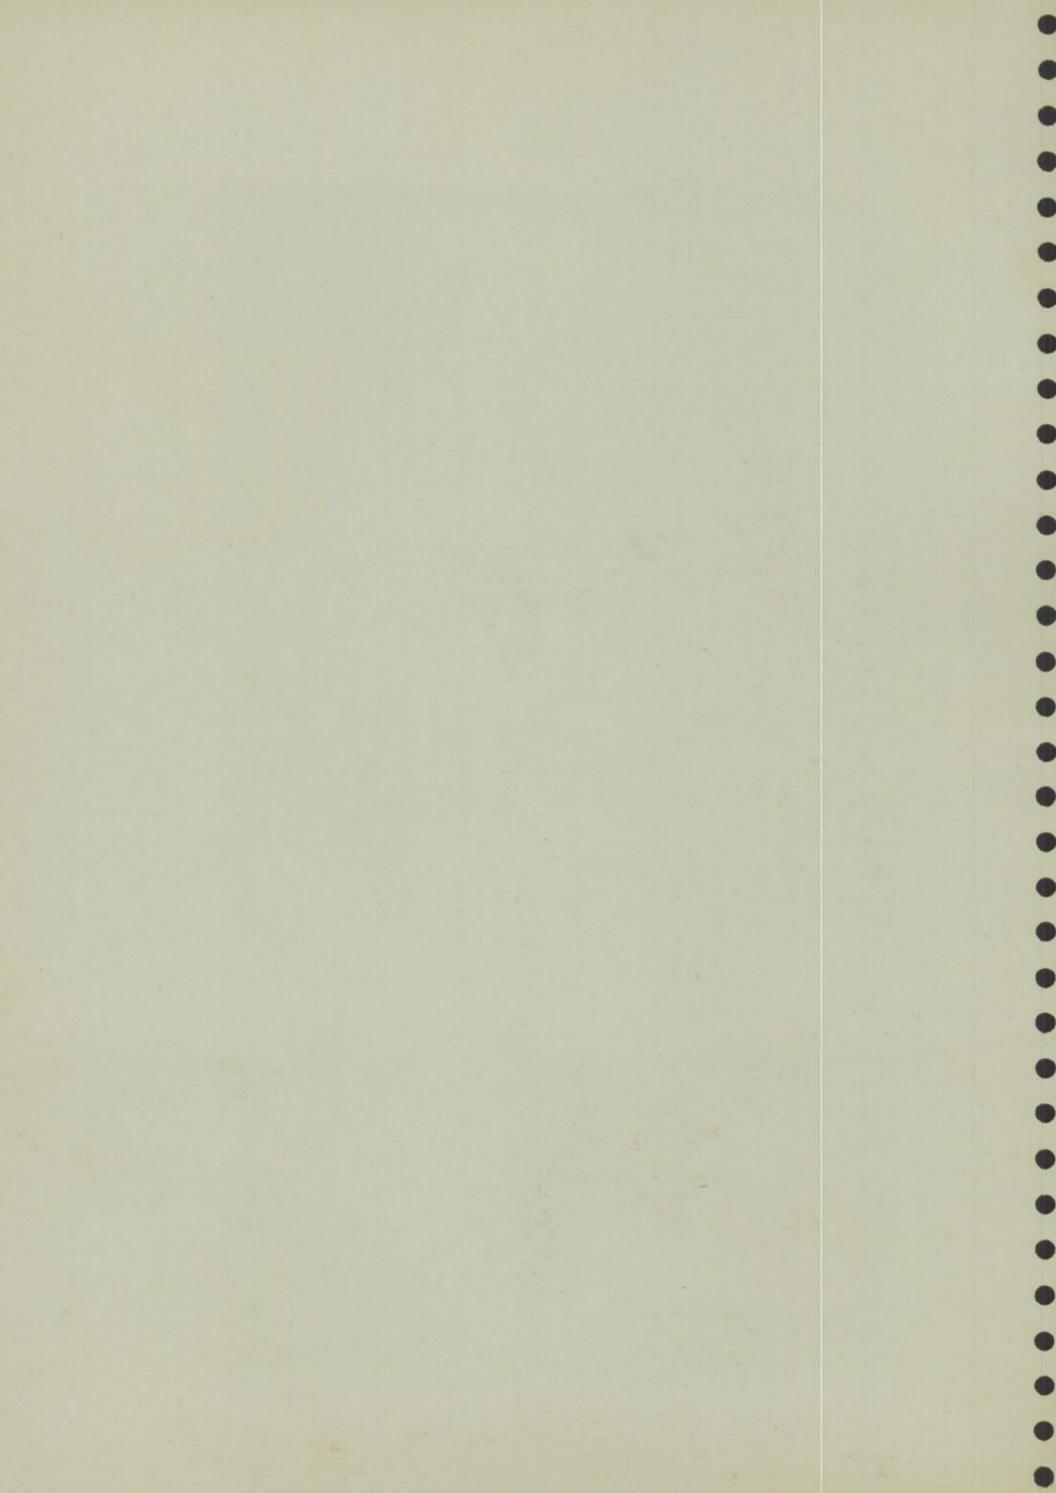

It is our hope that by co-operation learned through the principles of modern education, they may bring about a common union of all peoples.

You who are the first to graduate under the Green and White banner of Ogden Meadows High School can well be proud of the record you have made. Academically, you have set a high mark for your successors to strive toward. In activities you have provided an able leadership. Your finest accomplishment has been your contribution toward the establishment of a friendly, informal, truly democratic atmosphere for our daily living together. I am confident that the tolerance and openmindedness, the willingness to share and accept responsibility, the ability to be strong leaders and able followers, your belief in cooperative effort for the greatest good of the greatest number will prove invaluable to you.

With one accord, faculty and students wish you the very best of luck. We know that you will do well. We are proud of you, and we will have a share in your every accomplishment.

Catril Words

My wishefor the senior girls who are leaving us and for you, who will someday be seniors, is that you will strive continually to meet the challenge offered in my ideal girl.

well-rounded life, striving always to keep astrong body, an alert mind, and a radiant soul. She is courteous, modest, friendly, a dependable leader in a worthy cause. She is tolerant of those with ideals different from her and sets for herself a high standard in conduct and character, ever ting it as her horizon widens, striving to surpass the girl of yes-eday while growing into the woman of tomorrow.

not lot sen3

Through our first year as senior High School there has own an outstanding spirit ang the students enlivened th its feeling of friendliss, cooperation and fun.

With this splendid beging Ogden Meadows can look rward to greater successes d achievements in the future ars to come.

Arophecy OF '47

"Hey, Cloe, get out of the shower! Leave some hot water for me. Listen to this article from Kaye's Kolumn in"The Herald". There's one girl who rose to fame quickly. Pat Hurley is entertaining royalty. The Countess of Varsovinovich, formerly, Arlis Roberts, is spending the weekend at Miss Hurley's palatial New York estate. Also present are the academy Award Winners, Gloria Sauve and Maurice Hitchcock. Detective L.Stiffler of the New York Police is guarding Miss Sauve's jewels."

"You know, Jo, that article about Pat Hurley makes me wonder about Mikey Foster."

"Oh! Her? She's the latest torch singer at Mocambo's and her newest flame is Bob Legato. He and Vernon Dobler are co-owners of Mocambo's now. I heard that Jim McCaffrey is writing all of her latest songs. Don't you know any gossip?"

"Yes, I know that Helen Clayton is starting a new hospital, and Wanza Brown is resident physician. It's for nervous breakdowns and her first patients are Milly Dobler, voted the World's Best Patient; Bonnie Tisher, leader of the All-Girl Orchestra; Merle Sharp and Charles Kohlhepp, who are fast replacing Frankie and Bing; and Norma Schomoker, world reknowned traveler."

"Well, I can understand why they would have breakdowns. I'm surprised that Harlan Stutesman hasn't had one with that collection of old cars."

"Say, I heard he sold a hot rod to George Roberts, and it fell apart on Holly-wood and Vine. That couldn't have been so bad because the dazzling dancer, Kit Hinkle, pulled him out of the junkpile. I wonder if she'll drop multmillionaire Brenna for George?"

"Anything can happen these days. Look at Dot and Gene. After ten years she deserted him for the lead in Darold Ichelen's Pulitzer Prize winning play, "Our Wings Are Still Uncertain".

"I heard the reason was Gene spent more time tinkering with his new, jet-propelled car put out by Redenbaugh Motors than with Dot."

"By the way, Cloe, Kayo Potter and Slugger Hibbs have a bout tonight. They're still battling for the featherweight-championship. Johnny Stewart is broadcasting the fight. Shall we listen in?"

"After all, Jo, this is their sixteenth bout, so let's go downtown and see that dance team composed of Francis Jones Lutricia Brown, and Claudine Glenn. Donna Harmic, the famous critic, says they are sensational."

"Yes, and after the show let's go over to Hoin's Horri-ible Heap and have one of her hamburgers made by Edna Hickey. She's quite famous for them. Listen to this article in the paper. "Doug Bjerke was thrown out of the Turkish Bath today. Said he, "How did I know it was ladies's day"?"

"La Reice Bailey and Virginia Hanson are comer girls on the new magazine, "She Said Wolf" put out by the Sutton Fublishing Company."

"Oh yes, Jo, Clark Junior is now a cenior, but Joy Core is still official mascot."

"I wonder who will be Home Economics teacher at leadows next year? Could be Joyce Sasse? Some of the other courage-ous teachers at leadows are Gloria Whitmeyer, Inglish; Donnie Mocum, music; Geraldine Clark, Librar; Joanne iller, Latin Lallace Clauson, shop; and of all thin's Don Ferguson is the official public address system."

"Hare you read that new book by Mrs. Birdie Bunn? The title is "The Chick and I".

"She sounds harried. Are there any other harried.

married couples in our old class, Cloe?"

"Oh surely. There's LaVonne Jones, Jackie Jordan, and Luella Stewart. They're busy keeping the home fires burning "Do you remember Petty Ambrose who always looked out for the younger coys at school? She manages a kindergarten now and with Penny Pence as assistant, and Lovetta Tincham as the dietician. On exhibition this week are products from the World's Most Modern Farm run by Curtis Anderson, Roy Harvey, and Billy Yocum. Judging the products are like Cross, and Femieth Serviss."

"Tave you heard the news about fear, foreign? to remail became owner of his restaurant, and Jim Te molis is chief cook and bottle washer."

"Here's a hot news item. Helene Robison has so off on her expedition to the moon. Among her assistants are Tarbara toGraw, hunice Hess, and The Mis Hewstron. The pilot is Thyllis Lonsinger."

"Have jou seen that ad on the air on the air oards? There's a new product out, guaranteed to "Lip you p" and that former leadows playbor, brie Anderson, is their model."

"That's enough news for now. We know Meadows is represented in this jet ale, don't we, Cloe?"

In 1944, a snappy Drum and Bugle Corps was formed by Ogden Meadow's first music teacher, Charles Barby.

Last year, the Drum and Bugle Corps was transformed into a thirteen piece band, under the direction of our jive master, Charles Bradford. This organization made a name for itself by playing for football games, pep assemblies, banquets, basketball games, the Christmas program, the Easter program, and the Hi-Jinks.

This year, Mr. Bradford's Band, has added vocalists to their organization and has given us some excellent programs. They have not confined their talents to the school only, but they have played for various organizations as the Motary Club, the Kiwanis, and over K.V.A.N..

Lettermen Meet;

Meadows was off to a flying start with its first meeting September

20. Newly elected officers are:

president, Mike Speyer, vice president, Bill Potter, and secretary

treasurer, Francis Jones.

Officers Chosen

The club has decided that no letter that isn't from O.M. can be worn in the building.

Faculty advisers are Bill Lothspeich and Bud Walters. Meetings will be held once a month.

Social Events

The Football Dance, given in honor of the Ogden Meadows! football team, was held in the auditorium. A large, gold football centered the attention of those present to the individual pictures of each member of the team.

The high point of the evening was the presentation of awards to Howard Menees, honorary captain, and Mike Speyer, winner of the inspirational award.

Soft lights and good music helped to make the evening enjoyable.

The annual production "Carnival Capers" was presented May 1 and 2 with approximately 250 students participating.

Among the featured acts were freaks of the sideshow, including a bearded lady, a human skeleton, and a lion tamer.

The roller skating frolic was a merry-go-round scene followed by a jitterbug dance and "Sweetstuff" interlude based on Tchaikowsky's "Nutcracker Suite."

The school band, under Mr. Charles Bradford's direction, played throughout the entire performance.

The various acts were under the direction of individual teachers and the student chairmen.

Silver stars, a rising moon, and a blue sky casting its light on rose-covered lattices was the setting for the juniorsenior prom, "Moonlight and Roses."

The main event of the evening was the crowning of one of the loveliest lasses of the senior class as "Queen of the Prom." She was seated on a throne placed under a bower of roses, and after the ceremony, she reigned for the rest of the evening.

A short program was given at intermission, and punch was served throughout the dance.

Student chairman of the affair was Louise Pyles with Mrs. Verne Reierson as faculty advisor.

The graduating class of 1947 held the first senior ball ever to be sponsored at Ogden Meadows High School.

The dance was a formal affair and was held in the high school auditorium on the night of June 5, from 10:00 P.M. 1:00A.M. following the graduation commencement exercises.

Only seniors and their dates and guests were admitted the dance.

Seniors served on the committees for the decorations, tickets, and entertainment.

HORNETS ENJOY LAUDABLE FOOTBALL SHASON

Coach Bill Lothseich's gridiron Hornets had a commendable season winning five, tying one, and losing two tilts in their eight game schedule. The Ogden Meadows team tallied twenty-touchdowns, added ten conversions and a touchback for a total of 132 points against 52 markers for their opponents.

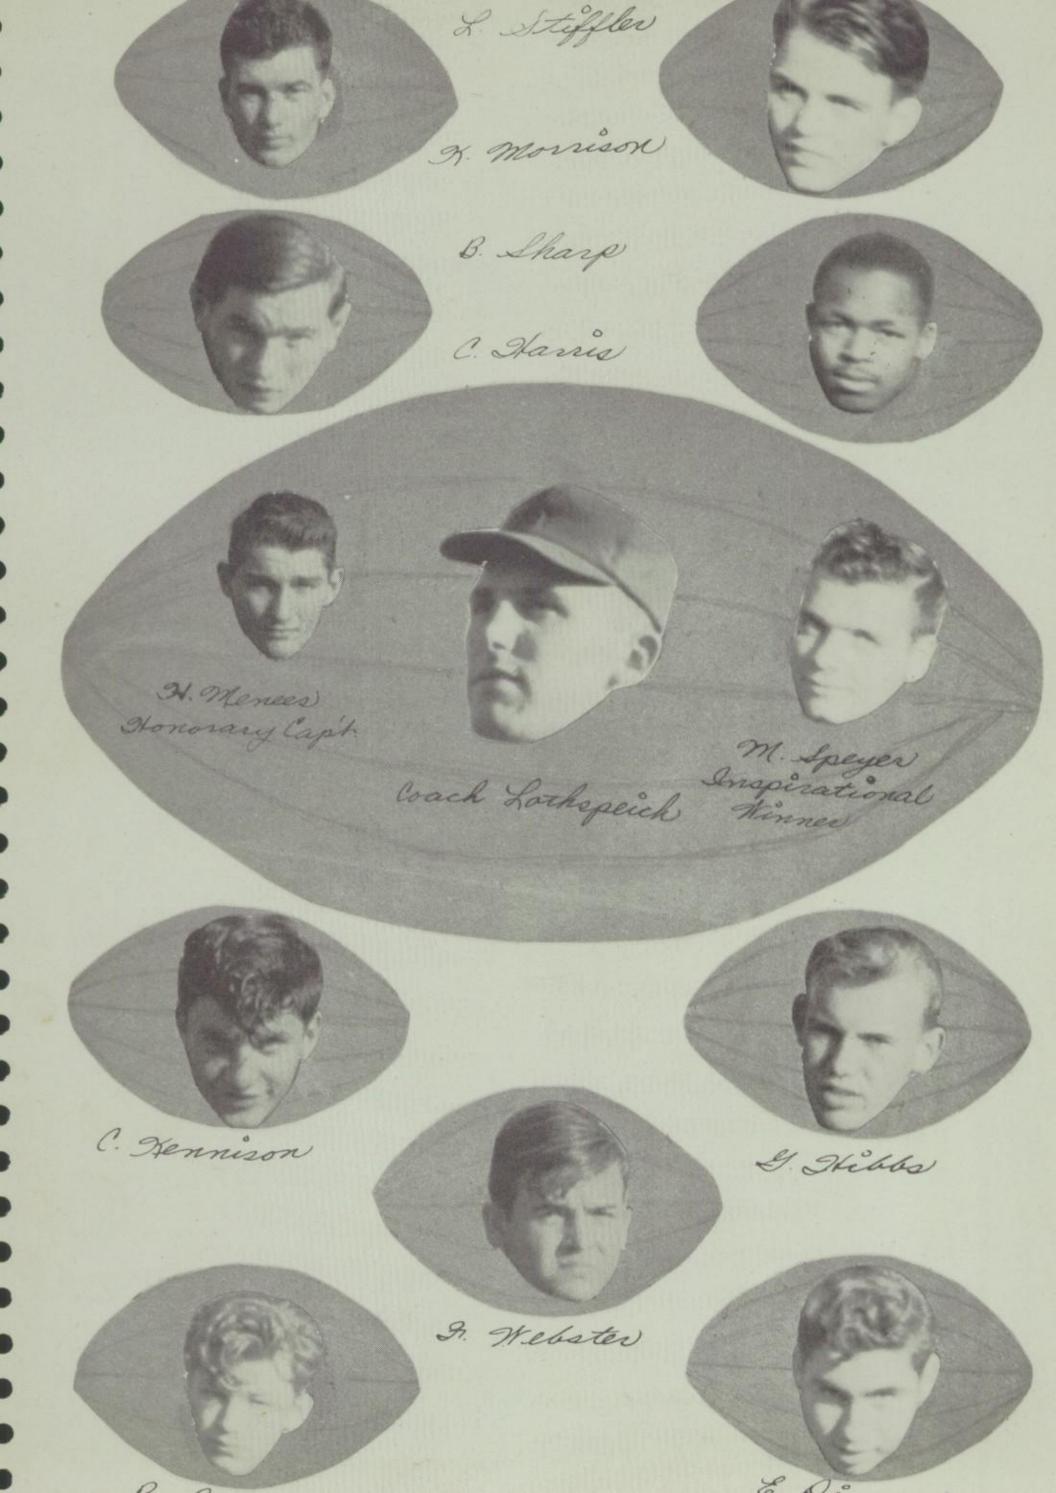

Leonard Stiffler, hard-charging fullback, led the Hornets in individual scoring with 42 points to his credit. Fleet-footed Clarence Harris and Howard Menees, wary half-back, followed with 31 and 25 points respectively.

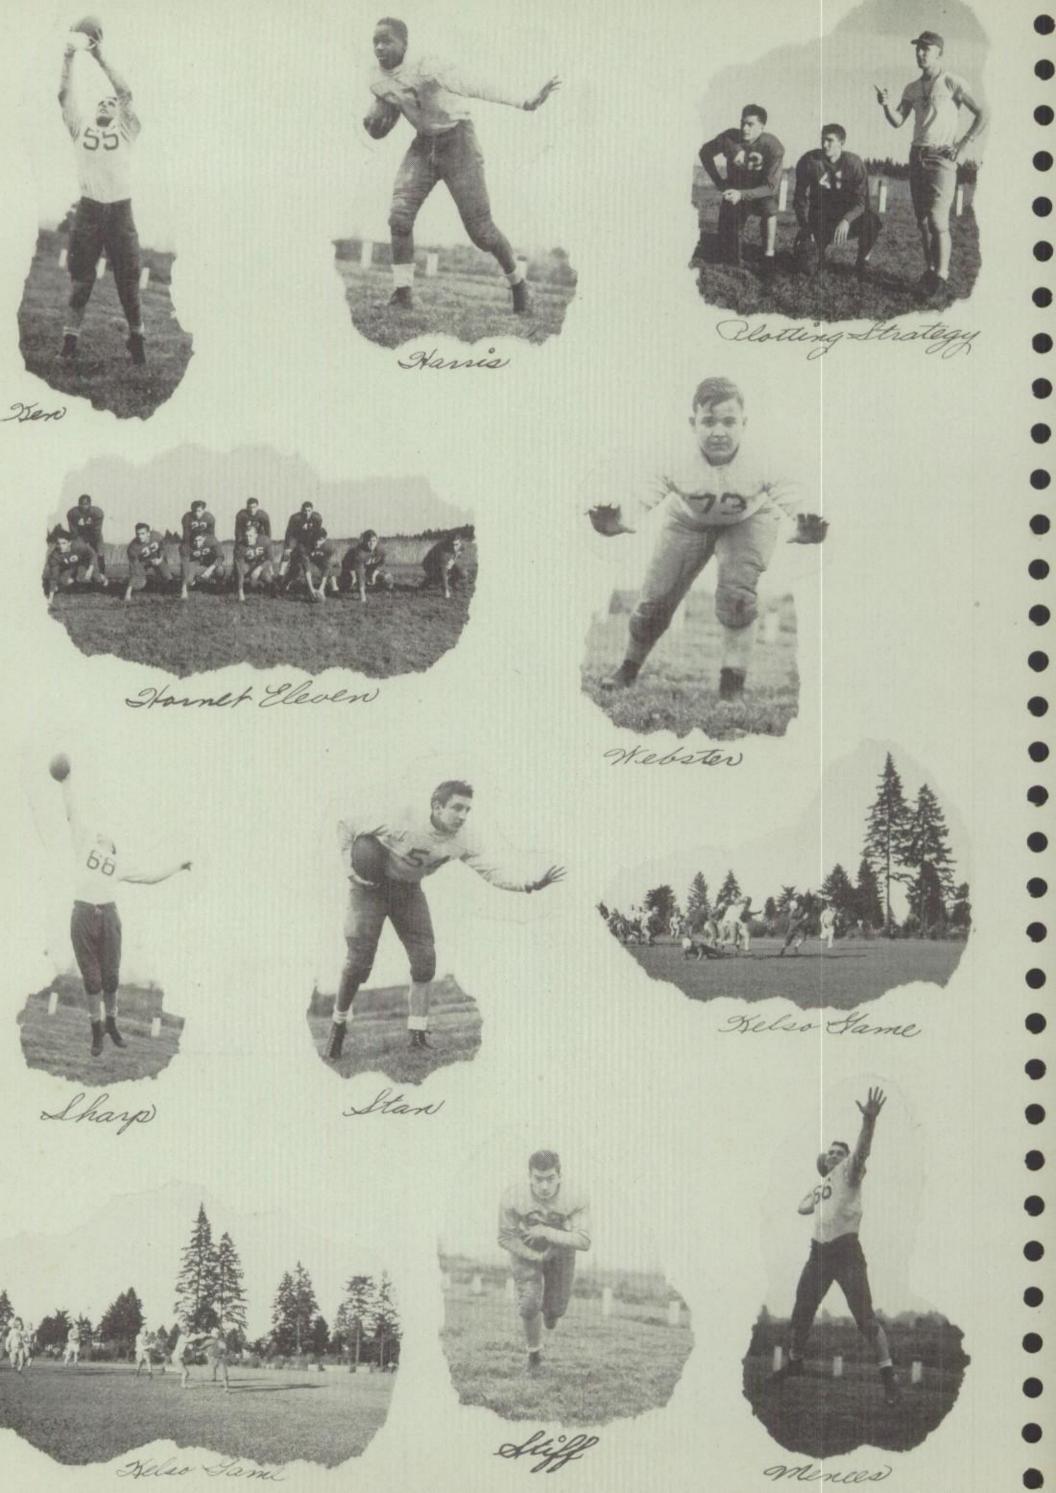

Scoring almost all of their touchdowns on fast ground plays, Ogden Meadows took their opening football contest by a lopsided 34-6 score over the Vancouver "B" eleven. The Hornets continued this rampage by scoring a 20-0 conquest over Parkrose, and following with 25-0 and 15-0 victories over the State School and Kelso "B" teams.

Ogden Meadows lost two thrilling games to the Hill Military and Sabin High School of Portland by 14-13 and 19-7 scores but the fighting Hornets came back to stop the State School pigskin squad of Vancouver, 18-13.

The home team gridders fought to a scoreless tie with the rugged Sabin Pioneers of Portland and this final game turned out to be the feature clash of the year. The visiting Pioneers out-weighed the Hornets man for man but the green and white faithfuls made up for this in hard driving and unrelentless spirit. Ogden Meadows played one of their best aggressive games of the season in their forward wall held steadfast throughout the contest enabling Sabin to cross the 50 yard stripe but 3 time.

The record for the last two years stands at 13 wins, 2 losses and one tie.
